

Position Description

Position title:

Auckland Design Office Intern

Division:

Chief Planning Office

Department:

Auckland Design Office

Unit:

Design Review

Reports to:

Manager/Team Leader

Direct reports / Indirect reports (number):

None / none

Location:

Auckland

Accountabilities of position

Purpose of position:

The position is in the Design Review Unit, which is part of the Auckland Design Office (ADO). The role of the Unit is to help provide design review advice to customers and our Regulatory Department on urban design outcomes, using the Unitary Plan and promoting best-practice design guidance. This function helps to enable the translation of strategy into action and help Auckland become a world class city.

The intern will be based in key functional teams and participate in key projects over the course of a 3-month programme, to provide a broad range of experience. The programme will include a mix of on-the-job learning and stretch projects, alongside work allocation typical for the areas they are based. The intern is responsible for performing work allocated and contributing to relevant activities and projects as required.

Work placement is dependent upon business need and the incumbent's learning and development.

Day-to-day work during the internship may require some travel to other Council buildings, customer premises and other work sites as required.

Key responsibilities

Work Excellence

Key Responsibilities

- Effectively carry out work allocated either independently or as a team
- Identify opportunities to contribute to team or business objectives and actively seeks to provide input
- Identify and recommend to relevant parties opportunities for improvement

Expected Outcomes

- Work is completed in a timely manner and to a high standard
 - The individual is recognised as a valuable contributor to achieving team and business objectives
 - Improvements identified and implementation evident
-

Relationship Management

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and maintain effective relationships with internal and external stakeholders
- Manage conflict effectively to ensure a functional professional relationship is maintained

Expected Outcomes

- Productive mutually beneficial relationships are developed and maintained
- Business objectives are met

Customer ServiceKey Responsibilities

- Provide excellent customer service to both internal and external customers

Expected Outcomes

- Auckland Council customer service standards are consistently met
- The reputation of the individual, their immediate team and Auckland Council are enhanced

Professional DevelopmentKey Responsibilities

- Take responsibility for identifying own learning and development needs
- Take action to communicate these and contributes to identifying relevant support to meet these needs
- Apply learnings to advance professional competence

Expected Outcomes

- Learning and development needs are communicated to line manager
- Learning and development needs are incorporated into Performance Development Plan
- Opportunities to participate in learning activities are proactively undertaken
- Building consents processed within required timeframes and meet all statutory requirements.

ProjectsKey Responsibilities

- Contribute as an active participant in project teams where applicable
- Provide up-to-date, relevant best-practice input based on studies, where relevant

Expected Outcomes

- Make a valuable contribution to project teams through:
 - Offering fresh ideas that encourage innovation
 - Actively listening to others' contributions, seeking clarity to advance own learning or understanding, and apply that learning to wider context
 - Take on a fair portion of actions to support the achievement of project objectives

Technical ResponsibilitiesKey Responsibilities

Support the provision of professional advice and expertise in the following areas:

- Assisting Design Review Team members with design review advice, to help provide background information for pre-application meetings.
- Assisting with drafting reports and design guidance.
- Developing and sharing best practice, including material for the Auckland Design Manual (ADM), to help raise the 'design quality bar' for Auckland.
- Opportunity to spend some time in the other ADO Units to gain an understanding the type of projects these units deliver.

Expected Outcomes

- Allocated work is handled effectively and in a timely manner
- Work is of a high standard

- Service to customers is exemplary
 - Council policy and process is adhered to
-

Organisational obligations

Key Responsibilities

- Action Auckland Council's good employer obligations including equal employment, biculturalism and diversity policies and practices
- Auckland Council is committed to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi – partnership, participation and protection – as such, we work with our iwi partners and the wider Māori community to meet their needs and aspirations for the city
- As an employee of the council you are required to understand and demonstrate our organisational behaviours
- As an employee of the council you are required to be associated, as required, with Civil Defence Emergency Management or any exercise that might be organised in relation to this council function
- Promote a safe and healthy workplace by undertaking responsibilities as outlined in Auckland Council's health and safety policy and procedures
- Promote activities and initiatives that assist Auckland Council achieve its vision and mission
- Promote one-organisation initiatives and action these service characteristics
- As an employee of Auckland Council you are required to familiarise yourself with and comply with all organisation policies, including but not limited to, Auckland Council Code of Conduct

Expected Outcomes

- Auckland Council meets its obligations as an employer
- Auckland Council meets its obligation under the Treaty of Waitangi and the Treaty Settlement Act
- Understanding and meeting the needs of Māori in the council's internal working environment and in the delivery of services to the Auckland community
- Act in ways that demonstrate understanding and which embrace our behaviours in your dealings with both your work colleagues and in your interactions, both internal and external.
- Acts in ways that support an environment of biculturalism, diversity and inclusion in the workplace
- Obligations under the Māori Responsiveness framework are upheld
- Auckland Council's reputation is enhanced within the community
- Health and safety requirements upheld

Key relationships

Internal:

- Team leader and team
- Mentor as assigned to support throughout programme
- Buddy to provide peer support throughout programme
- Graduate/Intern Liaison Officers throughout programme

External:

- All external parties as designated by the authorised manager

Type of person suitable for this position

Qualifications

Essential

- In penultimate year of study working towards a relevant New Zealand accredited tertiary qualification in a relevant discipline such as:
 - Bachelor of Architecture
 - Bachelor of Planning
 - Bachelor of Design

Desirable

- Going into final year of Masters in urban planning or urban design
- Driver's license required or other alternative way of traveling across the region

Experience

- No prior work experience required; however, work experience (paid or unpaid) in related field is an advantage.

Personal Leadership Behaviour – Team Member

Auckland Council's vision is to create the world's most liveable city, while delivering Aucklanders great value for money. Our high performance behaviours were developed to capture what it means to put our vision in to action:

- Develop - We take new approaches to solving old problems; we thrive on challenge; we think big and stay ahead of the game
- Serve - We treat our customers as though they're our friends and neighbours; we make things easy for Aucklanders; we spend ratepayer money wisely
- Achieve - We're accountable; we get stuff done; we achieve real results
- Collaborate - We are one council family and we trust each other; we know that the little things we do can make a big difference; success is a shared goal

General competencies

Essential

- Understanding of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and its relationship to Local Government
- Knowledge of tikanga Māori and an ability to relate with iwi and hapu
- Experience in the use of Microsoft Office applications, particularly Excel and Word
- Possess strong verbal and written communication skills
- Excellent time management and organisation skills
- Good interpersonal skills
- Problem solving and decision making skills

Desirable:

- Proficiency in Te Reo and an understanding of te Ao Māori;

Disclaimer

The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by incumbents in the assigned job. They are not construed as an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties, or skills required of the incumbent. From time to time, personnel may be required to perform duties outside of their normal responsibilities as needed.